

Your Week 16 Plan

JANUARY 6-8, 2026 • PARTS OF SPEECH REVIEW

Why we're learning this: This week we'll review the 8 parts of speech — the building blocks of every sentence. We'll start with content words (nouns, verbs, adjectives, adverbs) on Tuesday, then practice structure words (pronouns, articles, prepositions, conjunctions) on Thursday. Master these = build any sentence!

This Week's Focus

Tuesday, January 6

Warmup: Classroom & School Language

Grammar: Parts of Speech (Part 1) - Content words:
Nouns, Verbs, Adjectives, Adverbs

Homework:

- Review "Parts of Speech" guide (steps 1-4) on Class Companion
- Review the speaking warmup for next class

Thursday, January 8

Warmup: Year Reflection & New Goals

Grammar: Parts of Speech (Part 2) - Structure words:
Pronouns, Articles, Prepositions, Conjunctions

Homework:

- Review "Parts of Speech" steps 5-8 + mini-quiz on Class Companion
- Review the speaking warmup for next class

IMPORTANT

Quizzes & Tests

☐ Verb Quiz 1

Due Monday, January 12 • Online, 5 verbs, ~5 minutes

Verb forms practice (fill in the blank columns)

V1	V1-3rd	V1-ing	V2	V3
be (am/are) have do make go

What You'll Be Able to Do This Week

- ☐ Practice asking for help, clarification, and navigating school situations using classroom phrases (Speaking Warmup)
- ☐ Reflect on your past year's learning progress and set new English goals for 2026 (Speaking Warmup)
- ☐ Identify all 8 parts of speech in a sentence (content words + structure words)
- ☐ Explain the difference between content words (nouns, verbs, adjectives, adverbs) and structure words (pronouns, articles, prepositions, conjunctions)
- ☐ Build correct sentences using all 8 parts of speech together
- ☐ Use pronouns, articles, prepositions, and conjunctions correctly in speaking and writing