Warm-Up: Week 14, Tuesday

12/15/26

Understanding the News for Econ — reading about prices and jobs.

1 Fill in the blank

Use every word once. Change the word form if needed.

inflation · economy · cost of living · wages · interest rate · unemployed

1. The _____ is very high here. Rent, food, and bus fares all cost a lot.

2. Many workers are asking for higher _____ this year.

3. The news said fewer people are _____ this month.

4. When the _____ goes up, loans cost more money.

5. _____ means your paycheck doesn't go as far as it used to.

6. The news talks about the _____ almost every day.

2 More, less, or the same?

Read each news sentence. Circle: more, less, or the same.

Example: Gas prices this month are higher than last month. → more

1. Rent this year is more expensive than last year. _____

2. Unemployment dropped from 5% to 3% this year. _____

3. Wages stayed exactly the same for three years. _____

4. This month, groceries cost less than last month. _____

5. Interest rates are higher now than they were in January. _____

This week: talk about the news in English! Bring one price you noticed this week to share with the class.
