My Verb Chart

7 tenses, one verb: work

This chart is a helper. You do not need to memorize it. Keep it with you. Look at it when you write or speak. If you make a mistake, that's OK. People understand you.

3 big ideas (they work for every tense on this page)

1. Find the helper.	2. – Add not after it.	3. ? Move it to the front.
I am working.	I am not working.	Are you working?
I will work.	I will not work.	Will you work?
I have worked.	I have not worked.	Have you worked?

No helper? Simple present and simple past have a hidden helper: do / does / did. You see it only in – and ? I work. → I don't work. → Do you work?

	Past before now	Present now / usually	Future after now
Simple facts, habits, finished actions	yesterday · last week · in 2020 ⊕ I worked. V2 ⊖ I didn't work. didn't + V1 ? Did you work? Was / Were + subject + V-ing?	now · right now · today ⊕ I'm working. am / is / are + V-ing ⊖ I'm not working. am not / isn't / aren't + V-ing ? Are you working? Have / Has + subject + V3? he / she / it: She has worked. She hasn't worked. Has she worked?	Not today

Try It: One Step at a Time

Use your chart. Looking is OK!

A. Make the – and the ?

Find the helper. For –, add not. For ?, move the helper to the front. No helper? Use do / does / did.

Present simple	She plays soccer.	She doesn't play soccer.	Does she play soccer?
Past simple	They played soccer yesterday.
Future simple	We will play soccer tomorrow.
Present continuous	He is playing soccer now.
Past continuous	You were playing soccer at 6:00 last night.
Future continuous	I will be playing soccer at 6:00 tomorrow.
Present perfect	She has played soccer for 10 years.

B. Ask a partner

Ask the question. Write a short answer. Look at the time words: they tell you the tense.

	Question	My partner's answer
Present simple	What do you usually do on Saturday?
Past simple	What did you do last Saturday?
Present continuous	What are you learning right now?
Past continuous	What were you doing at 7:00 this morning?
Future simple	What will you do this weekend?
Future continuous	What will you be doing at 8:00 tomorrow night?
Present perfect	How long have you lived in Boston?
