Eastside Community Food Pantry · 45 Elm Street (church basement)

FREE FOOD for your family

Everyone is welcome. It's free. No ID needed.

Day	Time	Good to know
Wednesday	5:00–7:30 p.m.	Come after work.
Friday	4:00–7:00 p.m.	Come after work or school.
Saturday	9:00 a.m.–12:00 p.m.	Our busiest day. Come early!
Home Delivery	Saturday 12:30–3:00 p.m.	For people 60 or older, or people who can't leave home. You must call to sign up.

Every week we have: rice · beans · pasta · canned food · bread · eggs · milk

Pantry rules

- You must sign in at the front desk.
- You can come one time a week.
- First visit? You should bring proof of address: a bill or a letter with your name.
- No ID? That's OK. You can still get food.
- You should bring your own bags.
- You can bring your children.

Good to know

- Free food from a food pantry does not hurt your immigration case.
- Bus 7 stops in front.
- Heavy bags? Ask us. We can help.

Want to help out?

- Volunteers are welcome. Text VOLUNTEER to 55190.

We speak: English · Español · Português · Kreyòl ayisyen

Questions? Grace Okafor, Pantry Coordinator (617) 555-0190

Which day is best?

These 3 people want free food from the Eastside Community Food Pantry. Look at the days and times on page 1. Which time is best for each person?

A

Amina, 38

- She works at a hotel, Monday–Friday, 6:00 a.m.–3:00 p.m.
- She has English class on Wednesday evenings.
- She cleans houses on Saturday, 8:00 a.m.–1:00 p.m.
- She has 3 kids.

C

Carlos, 67

- He lives alone.
- He had surgery on his knee.
- He can’t leave home for 2 months.

J

Ji-woo, 30

- She works at a restaurant, Thursday–Sunday, 11:00 a.m.–10:00 p.m.
- She is free Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday.
- She takes the bus.
- This is her first time at the pantry.

Remember: check each person’s work days, free time, and the rules (Home Delivery: who can get it?).